Have you seen the press reports about the basics of the new health care reform legislation? Now it's time to figure out what this sweeping legislation really means for your business, especially the changes that will go into effect soon. This seminar will outline specific actions HR professionals need to take in the areas of:

- Planning, designing, and administration;
- Financial aspects of complying with the new law; and
- Clear, correct, and timely communication with your workforce.

About the EAC

The Santa Cruz County EAC is composed of employer volunteers representing a cross section of business and industry. The EAC was developed to promote a stronger partnership between the California EDD and the business community. Its commitment is to assist employers in conducting their business more effectively and efficiently, to provide information on employment-related issues, and to enhance the communication between EDD and the private sector.

This EAC is a member of the California Employer Advisory Council.

For more information about EAC membership, meetings, or this seminar, call Kathy Hoyt at (831) 464-6275 or e-mail khoyt@edd.ca.gov.

Speaker

Laura Innes

Laura Innes, a director of Simpson, Garrity, Innes & Jacuzzi, P.C., has engaged exclusively in the practice of labor and employment law for 24 years. Her practice combines preventive counseling for management with civil and administrative litigation defense. Recognized by Martindale Hubbell as an "AV" rated practitioner, Ms. Innes regularly publishes articles on a wide range of employment law topics and is a frequent speaker to client and community groups. Annually, Ms. Innes has been named a Northern California "Super Lawyer" – one of the top 5 percent of lawyers in Northern California – by San Francisco Magazine (2004-2009) and was featured in an interview entitled "America's Most Influential Women" for the Forbes SkyRadio program airing on American Airlines and United Airlines. Ms. Innes acts as a mediator in labor and employment matters and serves as an Expert Witness regarding all labor and employment matters with special emphasis on employment practices, discrimination and sexual harassment claims, and wage and hour disputes. Ms. Innes is a member of the Editorial Advisory Committee for the Employer's Resource Institute and a member of the Associated General Contractors Legal Advisory Committee. She is also a member of the Labor and Employment Law Sections of the State Bar of California, American Bar Association, San Francisco Bar Association, San Mateo County Bar Association, and the Marin County Bar Association.
