Speakers

Paul K. Wilcox
Mr. Wilcox is a partner with Mullen & Henzell L.L.P. and has focused on employment law matters since 1992. Mr. Wilcox has expertise in employee-employer relationships, investigation and defense of harassment claims, wage and hour compliance, litigation and class actions, leaves of absence, and accommodation obligations to disabled employees.

In his professional capacity, Mr. Wilcox is a frequent lecturer on employment law issues for a variety of professional associations including the Santa Barbara Human Resources Association, the Human Resources Association of the Central Coast, and local chapters of the Employer Advisory Council. Mr. Wilcox also offers private training on subjects such as effective documentation of performance issues, sexual harassment, and the nuts-and-bolts of wage and hour compliance.

Rafael Gonzalez
Mr. Gonzalez joined Mullen & Henzell L.L.P. after serving as an attorney and hearing officer with the U.S. National Labor Relations Board in Los Angeles. He is a partner with Mullen & Henzell L.L.P. and his practice is focused on employment and complex litigation matters. He advises and represents clients in wage and hour actions, administrative investigations, sexual harassment, discrimination, wrongful termination, and collective bargaining.

About the EAC

The San Luis Obispo Employer Advisory Council (EAC) is composed of employer volunteers representing a cross section of business and industry. The EAC was developed to promote a stronger partnership between the California Employment Development Department (EDD) and the business community. Its commitment is to assist employers in conducting their business more effectively and efficiently, to provide information on employment-related issues, and to enhance the communication between the EDD and the private sector.

This EAC is a member of the California Employer Advisory Council.

For more information about EAC membership, meetings, or this seminar, call Diane Zundel at 805-788-2683 or email Diane.Zundel@edd.ca.gov.
